

2009-2010 Parking Application

Dear Enloe High School Student:

Junior and Senior students who possess a valid North Carolina driver's license may request a parking space. To request a space and be placed in the Enloe parking lottery, please read the rules attached to this application that govern the operation of a vehicle on the campus. Also, please fill out the requested information and return it by July 31, 2009, to the main office in the West Building. Applications are available through the Enloe web site and through the school's main office.

Please note that all students must clear all fees and fines prior to applying for the parking permit lottery. Permits will not be issued to students with outstanding fees or fines. The names of those winning a lottery spot will be posted on the Enloe web and in the Main Office.

Those who win the lottery spaces must return their payment in the form of a certified check or money order for $170.00 (THIS IS THE CORRECTED PRICE) to Enloe High School, no later than August 12, 2009, to be considered a participant in the lottery.
